Does civil servants’ well-being at work matter for the public sector?

SIGMA Webinar for ENP Southern Partners
Tuesday 24 November 2020, 10.00-12.30, Paris time

AGENDA

Chair, Mr. Nick Thijs, Senior Policy Advisor, SIGMA
Moderator, Ms. Roula Sylla, Policy Advisor, SIGMA

10:00 – 10:10 Opening remarks
Mr. Florian Hauser - Team Leader - Centre of Thematic Expertise on Public Administration Reform at Directorate General for Neighbourhood Policy and Enlargement Negotiations, European Commission
Ms. Bianca Brétéché - Head of Operations and Regional Manager EU Neighbourhood South, SIGMA

10:10 – 11:00 Does civil servants’ well-being at work matter for the public sector?
Mr. Frank Van Massenhove - Senior expert in wellbeing, former chairman of the Federal Public Service Social Affairs management committee, Belgium, named Government Manager of the year in 2007.

11:00 – 12:00 Situations and initiatives regarding well-being and work satisfaction in the context of crisis, and lessons learned for the future
Participants from the different countries and organisations are invited to share their stories: practices/experiences/discussions/questions.

12:00 – 12:15 SIGMA’s support to well-being in the public sector in the region
Participants from the different countries and organisations are invited to share well-being areas of interest in their public sectors/institutions

12:15 – 12:30 Summary and conclusions
Mr. Sofiane Sehraoui, Director General at International Institute of Administrative Sciences, Brussels, Belgium
Mr. Xavier Sisternas, Senior Policy Advisor, SIGMA

All time slots above refer to Paris time (CEST).

Interpretation will be available from English, French and Arabic into Arabic, French and English.